

WE LEAD AMBASSADOR

DR. TRACIE SWILLEY

ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT,
FAIRFIELD COUNTY SCHOOL
DISTRICT, SC

WHY ARE YOU A WE LEAD AMBASSADOR?

I said yes to becoming a WE Lead Ambassador because I believe leadership is about serving, empowering others, and creating opportunities for women to lead with confidence and purpose. I want to help cultivate the next generation of leaders by sharing my experiences, encouraging authentic leadership, and building a community where women inspire, support, and elevate one another.

PROFESSIONAL BIO

Dr. Tracie Anderson Swilley serves as the Assistant Superintendent of Academics for Fairfield County School District, where she provides strategic leadership to strengthen teaching, learning, and student achievement. A former high school principal of more than a decade, she was named the 2025 National Principal of the Year by NASSP for her transformational leadership. Dr. Swilley holds degrees from Columbia College, the University of South Carolina, South Carolina State University, and Gardner-Webb University. She is passionate about equity, data-driven improvement, and developing future-ready leaders, and is the proud mother of Jalen and Peyton.

PERSONAL LEADERSHIP BELIEF

"I believe every student has the ability to achieve at high levels when provided with the right support, meaningful opportunities, and a learning environment that fosters growth, a sense of belonging, and high expectations."
