

WE LEAD AMBASSADOR

DR. ERICA S.
TAYLOR

ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT,
ORANGEBURG COUNTY
SCHOOL DISTRICT, SC

WHY ARE YOU A WE LEAD AMBASSADOR?

WE Lead has created a powerful community that supports, encourages, and elevates women in education, and I am grateful for the opportunity to contribute to that mission in a more intentional way. Throughout my career, I have seen firsthand the impact that strong networks, mentorship, and authentic leadership can have on the professional and personal growth of women leaders.

PROFESSIONAL BIO

Dr. Erica S. Taylor is the Assistant Superintendent for Communications, Business & Community Partnerships for Orangeburg County School District (OCSD). Dr. Taylor is a 24-year education communications veteran and is responsible for the communications and technology program of work for the Orangeburg County School District.

In OCSD, Dr. Taylor's responsibilities include but are not limited to, all internal and external communications, governmental relations, legal matters, partnerships, Freedom of Information (FOIA), grants, Provisos, student transfers, research requests, OCSD Board Relations, intercultural relations, and providing counsel to the Superintendent and district leaders.

Dr. Taylor holds a Doctor of Education degree from Charleston Southern University, a Master of Science in Broadcast Journalism from Florida A&M University, and a Bachelor of Arts in Professional English from South Carolina State University. She also has a certificate in fundraising from the Center of Philanthropy at Indiana University.

She is the proud wife of Major Nathaniel Taylor Jr. and the mother of three beautiful children – Nathaniel (Trey) III, Jaxon Evan, and Lacey Christina.
